Meet Bob

Meet Bob.

He's a legit dog genius.

Seriously.

With a simple word, he'll sit, sit pretty, lie down, and roll onto his back at your feet.

Bob's a great companion for all of your outdoorsy, exercise-y type activities. He's a man's man, for sure. He needs a companion that wants to give him his personal space while being his best bud.

Bobby is pretty independent. He likes playing with his toys with you, going on walks or hikes, and smiling at strangers. He also likes protecting his kennel from potential stranger danger, so he may do that at the door at home, too. His people will need to be prepared to maybe keep him away from the door when guests come over.

If you'd like to know more about Bob, email us today! He's an ideal best buddy if you're willing to give him his space when he needs it.
