Niko, posted just days before the fatal mauling

Niko's dam: TANKSBIGTIME LEXII OF BLUETOWN

Niko's sire: UKC'S MOST WANTED KIMBO

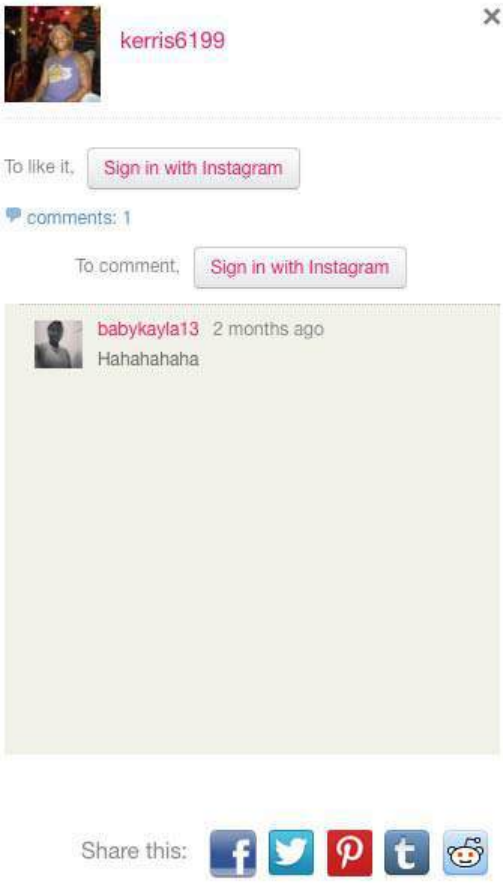
The household, as recently as January, had three pit bulls it appears, not just two. On the left is Kash (MHK'S JOHNY KASH), close in age to Niko and 135 pounds. On the right is Niko and in front is the female pit bull named Khloe. A third pit bull is not mentioned in any news reports.



Kash and Niko

Mia and Niko presumably five months before the fatal attack

Let's do a little training

Hashtags #pitbull
(owner calling the dogs pit bulls)

Hashtags are at the bottom in pink type, #pitbulls. Note the comment by the owner, "Just trying to show the world you can be a dog advocate and still do breeding Responsible breeding." 5-months later, Niko will suddenly attack and kill a little girl and get gunned down by police, 13 bullets were fired into the dog before it finally died.

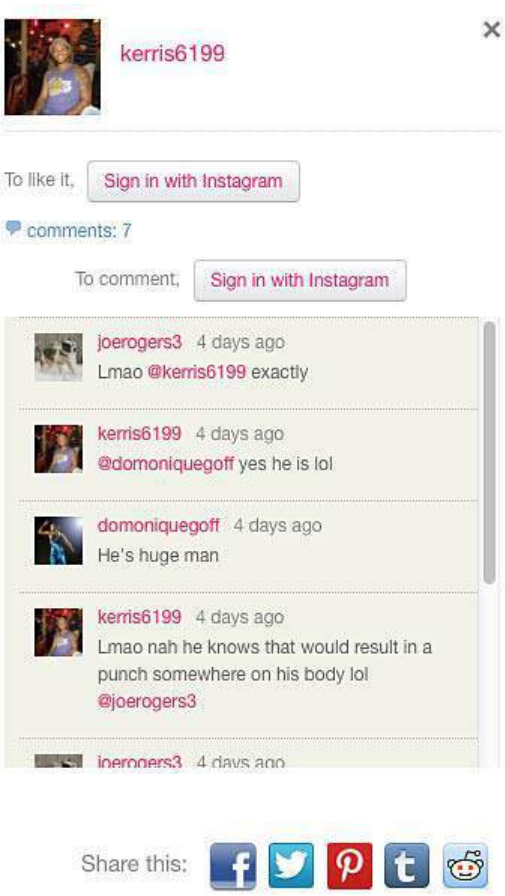
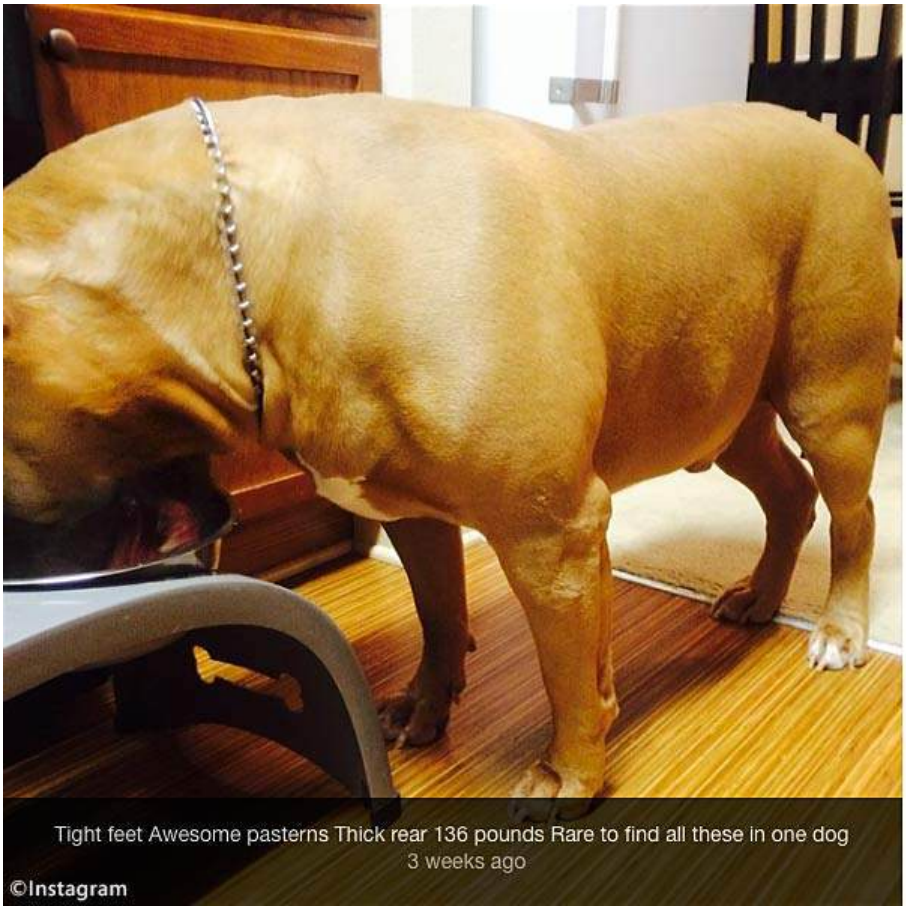
Results of pit bull “designer” breeding

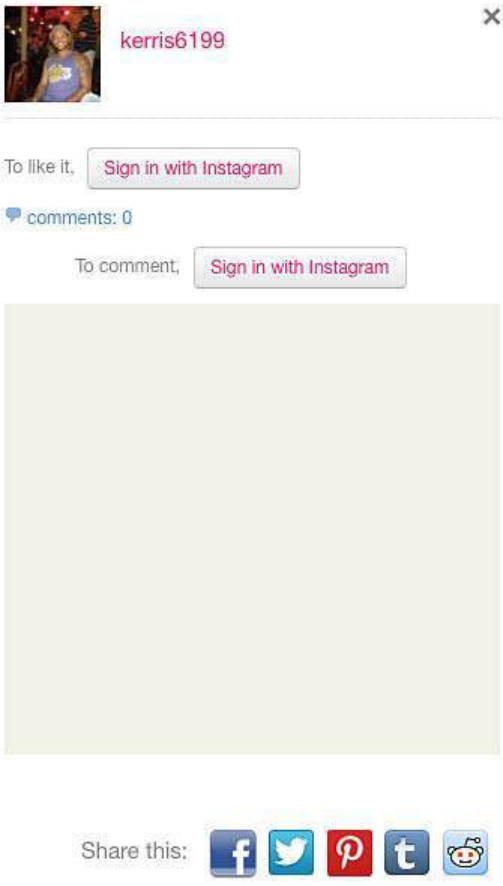
Niko presumably just days before the attack



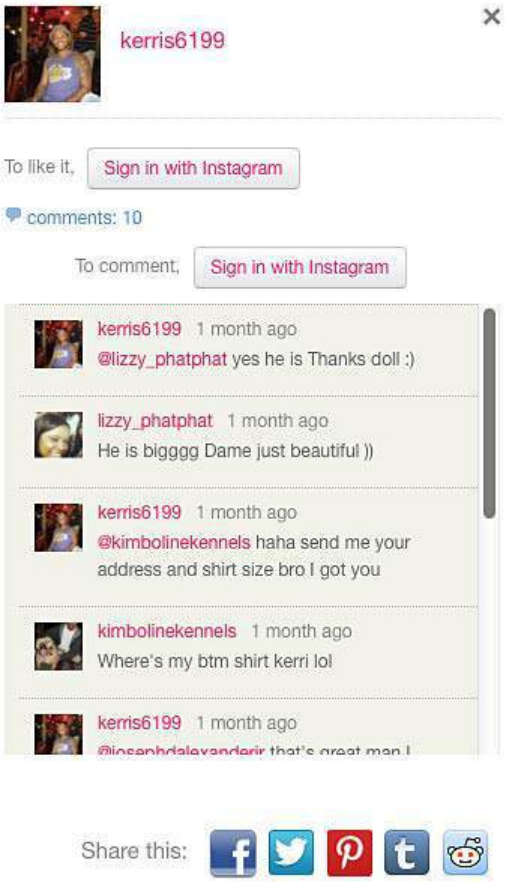
Niko presumably three weeks before the attack

Niko presumably three weeks before the attack

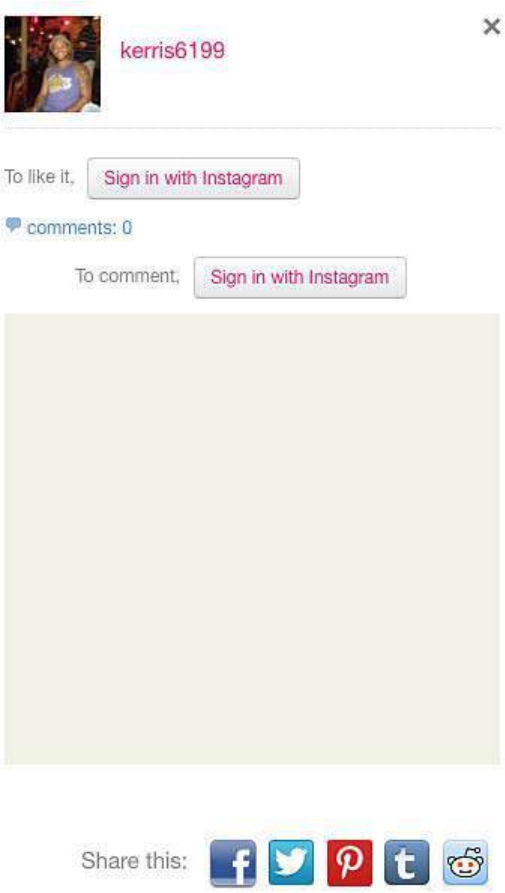




Niko presumably one month before the attack. The little girl, her mother and Niko were reportedly watching TV when the dog suddenly unleashed a violent, unprovoked attack

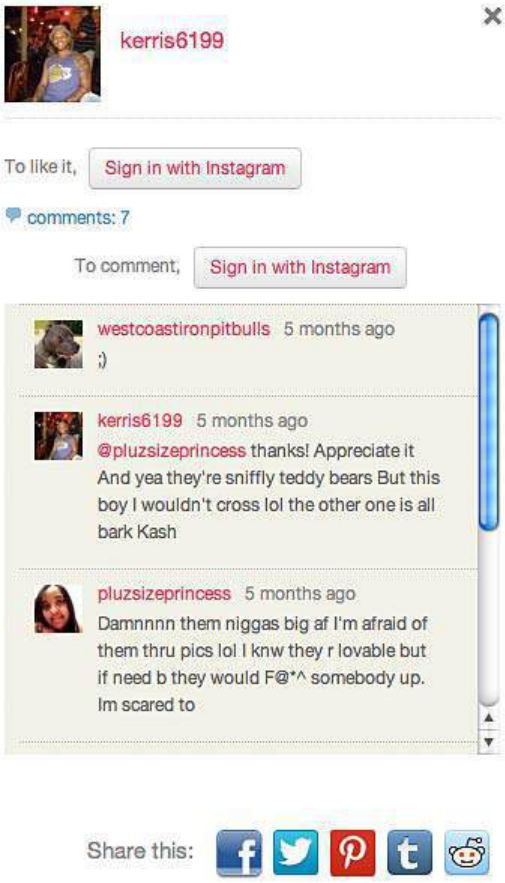


Kash and Niko presumably four months before the attack



Interesting comments

Referring to Niko, "But this boy I wouldn't cross"



Kash pictured, appears to be commenting on a serious or fatal mauling by a pit bull that occurred in March 2013, "none of the pit bulls I know would do that unless protecting someone"

Referring to Kash: "I get mad when people get scared, but I'd prolly be the same if he wasn't mine"

Referring to Kash, "don't be afraid" (of my dog that looks like a lion)
