			wobbles and her feet dance, she is that happy to meet you. She adores older children and might enjoy the company of another large dog. No cats for this girl. She needs an experienced home that will continue her training to put her playful, inquisitive nature to good use. Three year old Lu Lu is good on a leash with a Sensation harness and seems housebroken. Looking for a companion for summer adventures? Lu Lu is your girl. Come meet her and prepare to be charmed!
M15-298984	23-Jun-2015	BEHAVIOR	Lulu has been in my home as foster for 6 days. Her training and overall arousal level have improved during this time. However, during a photo shoot with volunteer [REDACTED] on saturday, lulu went quickly from behaving appropriately to a high level of arousal, grabbing the leash, then my hand (no broken skin or bruising). She responded to commands to "drop it" and appered to calm several times but then repeated the mouthy behavior. I stood on the leash and she accepted the restraint but continued trying to mouth everything within reach. At this point I returned the dog to my car, which she entered willingly. Once in car, she settled and fell asleep. Adopters should be aware that while infrequent, this dog can go quickly from appropriate behavior to high level of arousal. 564 edited to add- Spoke with Megan and James and they suggested that this beahavior could be attention seeking or a response to needing to be out to run each day. Dog should be placed in home with large safely fenced yard. She also needs a regular routine. 564
M15-300085	04-Jul-2015	BEHAVIOR	Volunteers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] report that another volunteer is allowing Lulu to fence fight in the play yard with no attempt to curb the behavior. I put gold locks on her kennel until the issue can be resolved. I have worked with Lulu on this behavior and she can be redirected fairly easily but needs consistent behavior modification. 564

M15-302226	22-Jul-2015	BEHAVIOR	7/18/15 Eyes dilated, nervous, high arousal, fence fights with other dogs. Stray from December. Emailed Brian and Megan.-518
