Re: Michelle Serocki of the Brew City Bully Club

In addition to Michelle Serocki flat out lying to Jeff's friend, Jennifer Scott, about the condition of Susan Iwicki's two pit bulls that Serocki never laid eyes on, DogsBite.org wanted to call out additional underhanded statements Serocki made in the same message exchange.

In August 2010, 4-year old Taylor Becker was fatally attacked by a boxer. Like nearly all dog bite fatalities, this attack received widespread media attention. In all of the media coverage collected by DogsBite.org about this little girl's death, the words "ate" or "eat" or "eaten" were not used to describe this attack. This appears to be more misleading amplification by Serocki.

"When the Boxer killed and ate the child in Washington County 2 springs ago the media called and asked if it was a pit bull. I guess that kid's life wasn't as important as Dax's since she was killed and eaten by a Boxer..." - Michelle Serocki

On page 2, Serocki claims, "I was consulted on this case," but doesn't name by whom. This claim by Serocki is just another attempt to gain authority and implies that she conferred with a law enforcement agency involved in the case. Walworth County Sheriff's Office turned to self-proclaimed pit bull rescuer Michelle Serocki of Hartland about this fatal dog mauling? Really?

Frankly, Serocki's mother or neighbor could have "consulted" with her about this boy's death, that being the only "consulting" she ever did on this case. When Jennifer Scott presses Serocki about her "conclusions," Serocki backpedals, offers no conclusions and ends the exchange.

Michelle Serocki will continue, we presume, to present herself to the media not only as a "pit bull expert" but also as a "safety" expert after future pit bull maulings and fatalities. Thus, reporters should also know that Serocki exaggerates her credentials, distorts the truth and manipulates.

Jennifer Scott got the last word on Michelle Serocki of the Brew City Bully Club:

"So you have no proof of what went on or what you call "neglect"...well, I call bullshit. Don't you dare make up lies when it comes to my friend's son. Do not pray for me, you are the one who needs prayers." - Jennifer Scott

DogsBite.org is a national dog bite victims' group dedicated to reducing serious dog attacks. Through our work, we hope to protect both people and pets from future attacks. Our website contains a wide collection of data to help policymakers and citizens learn about dangerous dogs. Our research focuses on pit bull type dogs. Due to selective breeding practices that emphasize aggression and tenacity, this class of dogs negatively impacts communities the most.

Hi Jennifer,

Just wanted to privately let you know that what I said publically is directly from my heart. I can't imagine your pain.

The dogs that did this were not well cared for though. I saw them and they were neglected – in my professional opinion almost criminally. You and I can have different opinions on how to care for dogs – but by social and veterinary standards these dogs were neglected.

When the Boxer killed and ate the child in Washington County 2 springs ago the media called and asked if it was a pit bull. I guess that kid's life wasn't as important as Dax's since she was killed and eaten by a Boxer... The twins in Menomonee Falls that are no longer identical because of a Black Lab – they weren't important enough to be news worthy either.

It's sick that the media does this OVER AND OVER AND OVER. If my kid ever gets killed by a dog – no matter what breed – I PROMISE YOU it's going to make the news.

I didn't want to put all this out on FB out of respect for you. I don't want to argue with you – I'm fairly certain that I won't change your mind and that's totally, totally ok. I don't need to – I just wanted you to know that some of what you're saying is not correct because I doubt you're a person that wants to spread out right lies. You're just a person that is devastated with grief.

I'm so sorry again for your loss and your anger. You'll be in my prayers not just right now and tonight – but for many days to come.

Take care,

Michelle Serocki

Sorry if that was all exhausting. I can do all the work and not say anything if you want from now on, and I mean that. Dax has made it an even bigger passion than it already was for me.

LOL!...ask her why there were no criminal charges then....how does she "KNOW" the dogs were neglected?..

Jennifer Scott

Jennifer Scott

Im also curious why there were no criminal charges then (in Dax's case)....how do you "KNOW" the dogs were neglected? And thanks for the prayers.

Animal cruelty is almost impossible to get to stick in WI. Our laws are incredibly weak here.

I was consulted on this case. That's how I developed my opinion.

You're so welcome – Jesus can heal everything. He will bring you peace.

So you have no proof of what went on or what you call "neglect"...well, I call bullshit.

Don't you dare make up lies when it comes to my friend's son. Do not pray for me, you are the one who needs prayers.
